Course

First five miles — hilly
Next four miles — gradual downhill
Last four miles — flat
Start — CCC Commons
Finish — Corning YMCA

The Red Baron Half Marathon starts at the Corning Community College Commons at the top of Spencer Hill and takes the picturesque roads down the back side of the hill. There are no steep hills that would be rough on the knees; and yet, from start to finish, there is a gradual 800 foot drop in elevation. Local distance runners regard this course highly, and consider this a great race event.

Again this year: sponsor your registration fee and fund raise for Spencer Crest Nature Center. Please complete the donor sheets and bring your registration form and donations the day of the race. If you raise at least $20, then your registration fee will be free.

For every $10 sponsored, you'll receive one raffle ticket that will go into a drawing for a special prize. In addition, prizes will be given to the runner who raises the MOST money and for the runner with the MOST sponsors. Prizes can be chosen from a selection of gifts provided by The Glass Menagerie, an art glass and kaleidoscope gallery located at 37 E. Market Street in Corning during the Award Ceremony following the race.

This is not required to participate in the race.
